

Annual Report
and Accounts 2016

The Printing Charity (previously known as the Printers' Charitable Corporation) is a Charity registered with the Charity Commission of England and Wales. It is incorporated under a Royal Charter and its governing documents are the Charter and Bye-laws. The charity was granted its first Royal Charter in 1865. A Supplemental Charter was granted in 1972 and again in July 2014 and amendments were agreed to the Bye-laws in 2006 and again in July 2014.

Our charitable objects

Our charitable objects have a strong heritage of supporting printers and their families and dependants. As society and the printing sector have evolved to incorporate graphics, print and media, so too have we to ensure that our purpose remains relevant and true to our original intent.

Our charitable objects are:

- The relief of printers being aged or poor or distressed
- The relief of persons who are or were dependent upon printers such as widows, widowers, parents or children being themselves aged or in distress and in need of relief
- The education of printers and those wishing to become printers
- The education of the children of printers

(For further details, see the Supplemental Charter of 14th July 2014.)

Introduction

We were established in 1827. Two further charities were founded and in 1865 Her Majesty Queen Victoria granted a Royal Charter forming the Printers' Pension, Almshouse and Orphan Asylum Corporation. The original Charter was amended over the years, with Supplemental Charters being granted in 1972 and 2014. The most recent Charter changed the charity's name to The Printing Charity.

Our Objects and Objectives are delivered through our two strategic pillars of Welfare & Wellbeing and Education & Partnerships:

Welfare & Wellbeing

Supporting individuals through financial assistance and operating two Sheltered Homes for retired printers.

Education & Partnerships

Working directly with industry partners to support young people joining the sector and those progressing within it.

Our two strategic pillars are focused on delivering impact to current beneficiaries, as well as extending our reach and scale in the years to come.

Chairman & CEO Report

Welfare. Education. Heritage.

In 2016 we helped 1,646 people, an increase of 44% from 2015. We have more to do and every confidence that we will achieve our aim to help more people in a more meaningful way.

This past year has been one of great change for the charity. We instigated a strategic review in the first half of the year and implemented the findings in the second. As a result, we have a new structure, refreshed aims and a refocused team in place. In short, we are proud of our long heritage and committed to growing our welfare and education support in line with our charitable objects and the very real need we meet.

The changes made have also included recruiting new team members and investing in improved systems, including Customer Relationship Management (CRM), which will help us to manage our grants process and communication in a more efficient way as well as provide enhanced information for management reporting and impact assessment.

What we have achieved

In the year we continued in delivering our commitment to supporting individuals with welfare grants and signposting to specialist services, as well as our growth in our education activities, and working with strategic partners to encourage new people to join the sector.

Our work in supporting education now ranges from The Queen's Bindery Apprenticeship Scheme through to our Print Futures Awards, now with 157 winners since 2009, and our collaborative partnerships with other organisations in schools reaching 521.

We have seen a dramatic increase in funding training for people who have been made redundant. We work with preferred partners who deliver skills training, such as CV writing and job search techniques, as a way of helping people back into work. We expect that this will continue to be an area of growth as the sector consolidates and changes further.

Looking at our governance, in the year we reviewed our Regulations, our main governing document, and completed a skills audit of the Trustee Board. As a result, we identified a need to build on our welfare and education expertise and we are delighted that our new Trustee, Peter Coley, joined us at the end of 2016 to add his skills in these areas. We continue to assess the skills we need to deliver our strategic objectives both as a board and within the management team as a whole.

The management team has worked hard to improve our systems and processes, induct new team members, extend our reach and build stronger industry links. Achieving an increase of 44% this year in the number of people we have supported and delivering greater operational efficiency is testament to the hard work of the team and the new strategic direction in place. We were also delighted to see record numbers at our 189th Annual Luncheon in November; attended by 200 senior industry friends and supporters.

A note of thanks must also go to the Trustees who give their time, our Presidents Emeriti, and the Rt. Hon the Lord Blunkett who was our 2016 President.

Looking to the future

During 2017 we will be looking at how we measure impact beyond the numbers of people helped and the positive response we receive from our beneficiaries. It is a critical aspect of our future development and will ultimately help to provide opportunities for future fundraising initiatives and supporter campaigns.

Our support for new initiatives such as the Paper Making Apprenticeship are also exciting developments in the year ahead as too are the new relationships we are establishing with education institutions to help support our Print Futures Awards initiative, including a project with UAL (the University of Arts, London) to design this Annual Report. We are delighted by the results and aim to create more live projects in the future.

Extending our networks and relationships with a range of organisations and continuing to improve our communications and outward facing activities, together with being accessible and here to help when people need us are key aspects of our work in 2017. We also believe that we are in sight of a long-held aspiration of helping 2,000 people.

Under our renewed focus and energy, we are confident that we have the ability and capability, not only to make this a reality, but also to achieve greater impact across our activities.

The year in numbers

increase in the number of people
The Printing Charity helped in 2016

1,646

people in total were helped across our welfare and education activities

How we delivered our 2016 objectives

Setting out our plans for 2016 our objectives were:

To help at least 1,164 people

We have worked hard to extend our reach and support for those who most need it. In 2016 we exceeded our target of people helped by 482. The total number of people we helped was 1,646, an increase of 44% on the year.

We have invested in the team, processes and systems to be able to increase our capability and are in good shape to extend our reach further. The work we undertake in 2017 will also help to identify additional impact our funding has.

Achieve at least 97% occupancy in our Sheltered Homes

Our Sheltered Homes have achieved a 96.33% occupancy rate in 2016. We recognise that there can be challenges in occupancy rates as a result of geography, local demographics and general awareness of our homes. We continue to explore ways to raise greater awareness about our homes in the immediate areas.

Spend a minimum of 95% of the budget on welfare

Although we achieved a lower level of expenditure on welfare (87.38% of budget rather than the target of 95%) this was more than offset by an increase in other initiatives, such as the support we funded for people who had been made redundant. We saw this work increase threefold during the year.

Identify 12 potential charity partners, to extend our national reach

We work with a number of like-minded organisations and in the year we grew our charitable links. Moving forward we are focussing on building relevant links rather than achieving a set number of organisations to work with. Our partnerships are based on need and as we gain greater insight into those we help, our network of charities we work with will grow.

Identify six potential industry partners from which to raise the profile of our work

Our Annual Luncheon represents an opportunity to engage with industry partners from across the sector. In 2016 almost 200 people, representing a wide range of organisations from across the sector, attended the event. This was a record number for the charity and illustrated the increasing engagement we have with industry partners. Following the success of the luncheon we have been looking at ways to work with our partners on tangible projects from welfare support through to our Print Futures Awards and will continue to do so in 2017.

Create a robust supporters package to raise greater awareness of our work

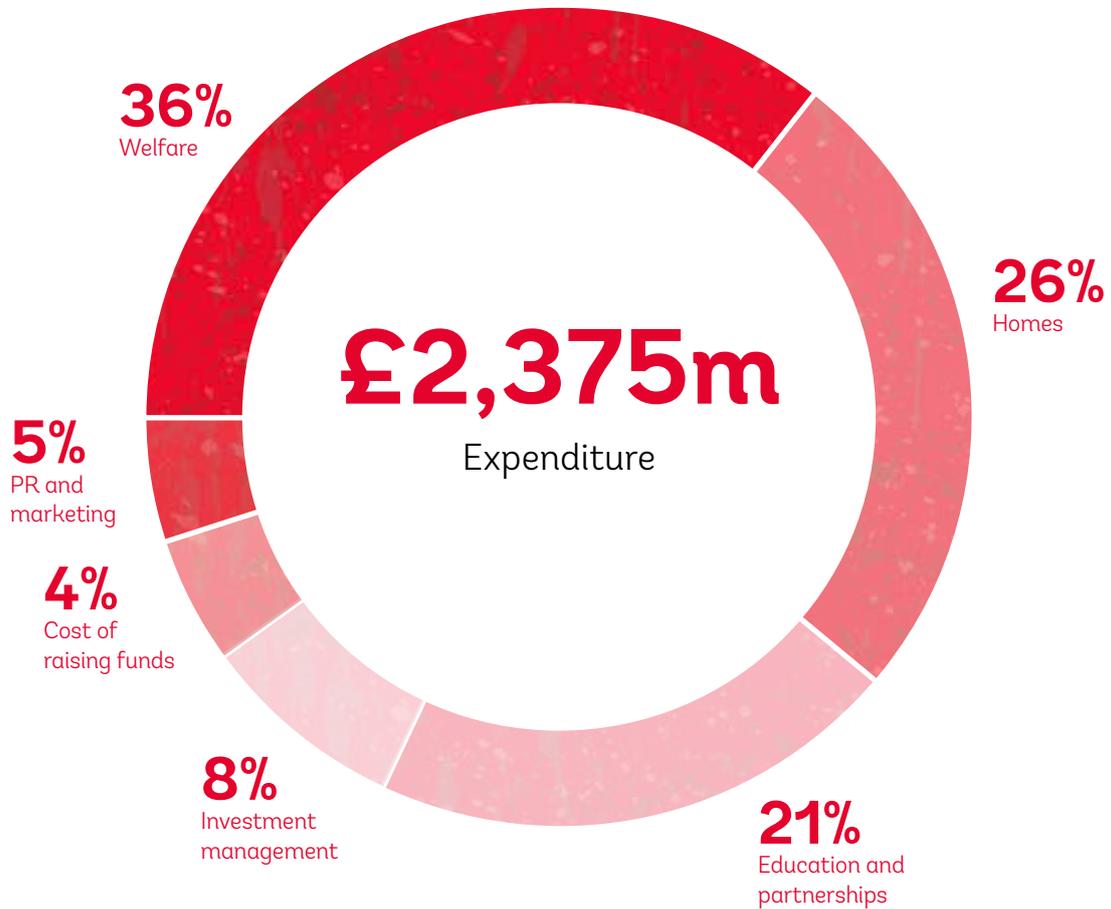

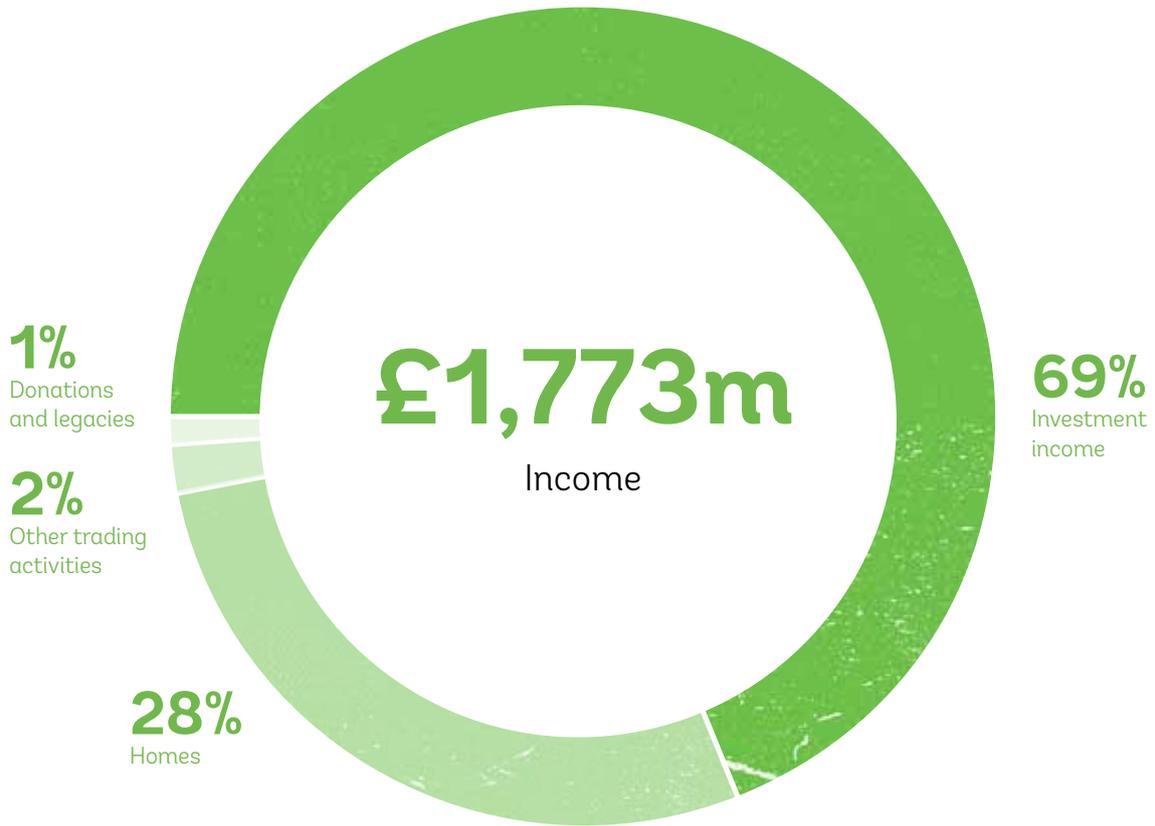

We invested in a Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system as part of our strategy to have better communications and capability to manage our relationships effectively. We will continue to review the best way to build a supporters' programme.

Achieve at least budget income

We achieved more than our budgeted income as a result of the market fluctuations in 2016. We continue to be cautious in our investment decisions and take a medium to long-term view for our investment strategy.

Achieve a return of 4.5% above inflation from the investments

Our return exceeded our target for 2016 with a 7.53% return above inflation from our investments. We remain cautious about the future of our investments and have kept our target return for 2017 cautiously unchanged at 4.5% above inflation due to the current uncertainty in financial markets and geopolitically.

What we do

The Printing Charity is the only charity with a welfare and education focus across the graphics, printing, paper and packaging sector.

We support people with a history in the sector, as well as those currently working in or aiming to be part of it. Often we work with two extremes: helping people financially for whom life is a daily struggle, right through to funding training and pathways for young people joining the sector.

We believe in the sector's future and its ability to constantly evolve and adapt from the rise in packaging innovation and interactivity combined with the advances in personalisation and targeted direct mail. It is hard to imagine a day when we are not connected, in one way or another, to a print-related product; from our breakfast cereal box, coffee cups and sandwich packaging through to the delivery of our online shopping, the newspaper or magazine we read or printed textiles we wear.

At all times we balance our passion for the future with the aim to be accessible for people in need of help. With this in mind, in 2016 we conducted a strategic review of the charity with the aim of creating a clearer vision and structure to deliver our strategic aims.

Our Aim: To be recognised as the charity of choice for the printing, publishing and packaging sector; here to help today, true to our heritage, and investing in the sector's future talent.

We are clear about our aims and ambition to help more people in a meaningful way and have set out a roadmap to deliver them over the next three years.

We believe that we will achieve our aim through:

A clear focus on our two pillars:

- Welfare and Wellbeing (promoting independence, dignity, and signposting to specialist help)
- Education and Partnerships (working with strategic partners to promote the sector, attracting and retaining talent in the sector)

This two pillar focus is supported through practical and operational activities including:

- Investing in our people and systems to equip them to deliver our aims and contribute to the future of the organisation
- Working with strategic partners to reach more people to help
- Refreshing our marketing and communications to deliver our messages to current and potential beneficiaries in a clear and consistent way
- Reviewing and extending our impact measurement to include much more than the number of people helped
- Better understanding the audiences we aim to support to ensure our services/help are right and have impact
- Managing our financial resources to fund our work (in time fundraise based on impact/effectiveness)

A clear way of working:

We recognise that to be able to reach more people and identify ways to offer help in a meaningful way our approach must be clear to potential partners and collaborators. In all we do we strive to be open and accessible by working in the following ways:

- To be collaborative and work strategically with like-minded partnerships and alliances
- To be accessible and here to help
- To be compassionate, fair and open
- To be outward looking
- To focus our funding where it has real, tangible impact
- To ensure the future sustainability of the charity
- To know our audiences and find ways to support them now and in the future

Our aim to be recognised as the charity of choice for the sector is ambitious and achievable. With our renewed strategy and focus on building capacity and capability within the organisation, accessibility for current and potential beneficiaries and a clearer outward facing approach, the route to achieving our aim is clear.

We are clear about our aims and ambition to help more people in a meaningful way and have set out a roadmap to deliver them over the next three years.

Much has changed since 1827 but our work is as relevant today as it's always been

Welfare & Wellbeing

We deliver our work through regular and one-off financial grants, as well as supporting people in retirement through our two purpose-built Sheltered Homes.

Welfare grants

Many of the people who contact us for assistance have immediate and at times complex needs, which is why our Welfare and Wellbeing work reflects that by offering both financial assistance and practical support.

In 2016 we introduced a new team structure and grew the Welfare and Wellbeing team (formerly our Helps programme) in recognition of the need to build a deeper understanding of the people we help.

Our one-off grants can be used for things such as home adaptations, mobility equipment and respite care, while our Regular Financial Assistance (RFA) is for people who need ongoing financial help. We also refer people to specialist services including debt management, redundancy support and counselling.

We believe that in order for us to deliver our support we need to understand the particular situation of our beneficiaries. We speak to current and potential beneficiaries on a daily basis to talk them through our support and ensure they have the right information to be able to apply for grants and assistance.

In the year we implemented a new Customer Relationship Marketing (CRM) system, called Salesforce, together with the necessary team training to use and manage it effectively. As we ended the year we began the process of migrating our beneficiary details to the new system. This is expected to be completed by the end of Q1 in 2017. Once complete we will see immediate benefits in the time it takes to process future applications and an increased capability to provide relevant and effective management information. In 2017 we will also be incorporating beneficiary information for our one-off welfare and education grants. This, together with a new team of welfare officers, will greatly improve our ability to manage reporting and the growth in our services.

Improving our processes

In the year we also instigated a review of the current benefits guidelines used when assessing applications for financial support and improved the turnaround time for processing applications. We aim to respond within 21 days of receiving an application and can respond sooner where a case is urgent. This is an improvement on our previous turnaround times, which could have taken up to three months.

We will implement a new application form and payment schedule for beneficiaries receiving Regular Financial Assistance (RFA) in 2017.

It was such unexpected kindness when I was dealing with the shock of being diagnosed with cancer and undergoing chemotherapy. The charity's help has really made a difference.

Brenda

Brenda

After leaving school at 15, Brenda worked for seven years at Burroughs Wellcome, one of the largest employers in Dartford at the time. During her two-year apprenticeship she worked in different sections, including bookbinding and packing. Her interest in anything mechanical was noticed and she was put in charge of the machine that folded and glued cardboard packaging in the Tabloid Press section.

Her aptitude for technology led to her winning £25 for her suggestion, which the company implemented, of installing a device that held the glue bottle upside down so it drip fed the glue into the machine, instead of having to fill the machine manually with glue.

Now retired, Brenda had to have an operation on both of her knees seven years ago, making living in an upstairs flat difficult, so she moved into a rented bungalow in a privately owned sheltered accommodation scheme, which she loves.

Recently diagnosed with oesophageal cancer, Macmillan Cancer Support contacted The Printing Charity on her behalf, as she was worried about paying her rent and heating bills. Her three sons are extremely supportive, but she did not want to burden them with her financial worries.

“When The Printing Charity told me my application had been approved for weekly financial assistance, I burst into tears,” Brenda says, “but they were happy tears. It was such unexpected kindness when I was dealing with the shock of being diagnosed with cancer and undergoing chemotherapy. The charity’s help has really made a difference.”

If it wasn't for The Printing Charity and their financial help and kind words, I know in my heart of hearts, I would not be here today. In my darkest hours after losing my wife, when all I could see was hopelessness and no future, The Printing Charity gave me strength and hope for the future.

Sheltered Homes

Our purpose-built Sheltered Homes, one in Basildon and the other in Bletchley near Milton Keynes, were home to 98 people in 2016. Our Sheltered Homes provide independent living in a caring, friendly and safe community for people aged 60 years or over, who have retired from the industry. We have 72 apartments in total and they form part of our commitment to look after older people.

- 2016 Objective: 97% occupancy
- 2016 Achieved: 96.33%
- Average Age: 81
- Average length of stay: 16 years, 1 month

Each Sheltered Home is managed on a day-to-day basis by a Home Manager, living on site. The residents enjoy the benefits of being part of a caring community, whilst being able to retain their independence and the freedom to come and go as they please. Throughout the year there were a number of activities and trips planned for the residents including a Wimbledon-themed cream tea, summer barbecue and a trip to the dog racing.

The Trustees recognise that there are more people in need of help to remain independent from outside the particular geography of our Sheltered Homes and it is the aim of the Welfare and Wellbeing team to build links with other organisation and providers, such as the Elderly Accommodation Council, to signpost and support individuals where appropriate.

Arnold

Arnold's role in helping to crack the Enigma code

Arnold, one of our residents at Beaverbrook House in Bletchley, recalls the part he played as a 19-year-old naval rating in helping to capture the Enigma decoder.

During an attack on the North Atlantic Convoy on 7 May 1941, HMS Aubretia dropped a depth charge on the German submarine U110. The damaged submarine was forced to surface and the German crew surrendered.

Arnold was part of the 'X' gun crew on HMS Bulldog ordered to board the submarine and strip out equipment that would be of value to the British war effort. The items they salvaged included the Enigma machine used by the Germans for encoding messages.

He says they did not know what it was until it was sent to Bletchley Park where Alan Turing and his team were able to crack the Enigma code.

Arnold served on HMS Bulldog from 1939 to 1945 and saw action in North Africa, Iceland, Naples, Kiel, and Hamburg. He is proud of the service medals he was awarded.

He started in the printing industry in Hull when he was 15 years old and then moved to Bedford. He has two sons, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Now 99, he has lived at Beaverbrook House since 2010. He has learnt to sew and makes shopping bags for a charity in Reigate. He says he can also turn up trousers and make curtains.

Audrey

Audrey has fond memories of working in the printing industry. Although the 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. days were long and there was very little formal training given in any of the companies she worked for, she enjoyed the work.

Her first printing job was at Uxbridge-based Bell Punch, which printed railway and bus tickets. Moving back to Bletchley where she grew up, Audrey joined Blackmoor and Brown which, as well as printing dress and coat patterns, was a print finishing company, where she recalls much of the work was done by hand: filling magazines with inserts, tying them in bundles and loading them on pallets.

"There were about 40 of us employed there and it was a friendly place to work," she says. "Sometimes we worked on the massive Muller machine, filling it with inserts, which automatically inserted them into books on the conveyor. The industry was changing, though, and we were made redundant when the company closed."

Audrey's next job was at Burton's warehouse where she worked until she retired. Initially dealing with garment orders, she moved to the print room where she was in a team of three. She learnt to use a computer to print the size and price labels for garments that were manufactured in Taiwan and Hong Kong for Burton's.

Audrey has always been interested in music and bought her first record player when she started work. David Brubeck's music introduced her to jazz, which she still loves. A resident at Beaverbrook House for the past 12 years, Audrey says: "This place has just been wonderful, it really has."

Beaverbrook House has just been wonderful, it really has.

Unemployment support

As the sector continues to innovate, it will also have an impact on people in the businesses undergoing change. This year we have seen this impact through an increase in the support we provide to people facing redundancy. This year we will have helped 439 people. (2015: 257)

It is an uncertain time for anyone going through this upheaval, but our support is aimed at helping prepare someone for finding a new job. We fund workshops covering CV writing and interview skills and access to tools to help find new jobs. We receive an overwhelmingly positive feedback from people going through the workshops and expect to see this support increase again in 2017.

In support of our welfare and wellbeing activities, we also work with a range of partner organisations including:

- The Journalists' Charity
- NewstrAid
- Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association (SSAFA)
- Money Advice Trust with The National Debt Helpline
- StepChange (CCCS)
- Elderly Accommodation Counsel's (EAC's) accommodation website
- Relatives & Residents' Association

Subsidy/provision – Butlin House

As part of the Terms and Conditions of the sale of Butlin House, residents at the time the nursing home was taken over by Goldcare Limited and who had a print connection, have continued to receive a subsidy calculated at £100 per week from The Printing Charity. At the end of 2016 we had one beneficiary receiving the subsidy.

Images of our residents and Sheltered Homes

Education & Partnerships

Our education support has developed from the education of printers' children to our partnerships with organisations working with young people in schools and the community, as well as industry initiatives.

In the year we reviewed our industry partnerships with a view to refocussing on strategic partners who could help us in supporting people already working in the industry, as well as those aiming to join it.

Our financial grants are aimed at creating pathways into employment, such as supporting internships, as well as working with industry representatives to find ways to recognise and support the good work that many employers and organisations do. The changes happening in training with the introduction of the Apprentice Levy in 2017, as well as the growing shortage of skilled people to join the sector, a misconception of the sector as declining and competition from other sectors create many challenges and opportunities now and in the future.

This year we have been growing our knowledge and contacts to ensure that we are working with the right industry partners as well as growing our own flagship Print Futures Awards programme and Alumni initiative.

We are passionate about giving real and practical work experience to young people joining the sector. At the end of 2016 we started to work with undergraduate students at UAL/LCC on the live design brief for this annual report and our 2017 Print Futures Awards materials. We are also working with Nettle and their design 'cadets' to create a new project to design our website for launch in 2017.

Our activities

Schools

In 2016 our funding supported a range of education initiatives from a pilot in secondary schools in West Sussex using design and sport to engage with young people, through to working with disengaged young people trying to establish their own print-related enterprises and providing equipment for a South London Academy focussing on a new digital media curriculum.

Training and apprenticeships

Apprenticeships provide a career path with great opportunities and benefit the industry. Together with print employers, the British Printing Industries Federation (BPIF) and Unite the Union, we are involved in the Trailblazer in Printing Apprenticeship programme developing the new print apprenticeship standards and also the new national Paper Making Apprenticeship programme.

This year we became a founding partner of The Queen's Bindery Apprenticeship, which will help preserve the increasingly rare skills and expertise of hand bookbinding. Over a seven-year pilot, up to six apprentices will work in the Royal Bindery at Windsor Castle and in external workshops, gaining City & Guilds qualifications and the skills to run a small business.

Since 2014 we have been supporting the Rory Peck Trust by funding assistance grants for UK freelancers who are in crisis because of their work, and bursaries to help freelancers undertaking essential safety training in hostile environments.

Daniel

Daniel Weatheritt is an illustrator and graphic designer based in Northumberland. He loves designing for print, producing handwritten typography and favours traditional working methods, striving to keep print alive through innovative graphic solutions and showing his clients that when considered correctly, print can work in harmony with digital communications.

He also works with schools, libraries and museums across the North East, delivering bespoke workshops. Airship Nelson, his fictional travelling art airship, was created as a way of connecting and collaborating with young people, providing a vehicle to practise and learn about illustration, graphic design and bookmaking through participatory workshops, channelling raw creativity into unique printed books.

His 2016 Print Futures Award funded further professional training, session planning and investment in new illustration and bookmaking equipment for use by young people.

Print Futures Awards

Keir Mucklestone-Barnett

Print Futures Awards winner 2016

Keir recently finished a second graphic design internship at Holden's in Manchester. Prior to that he had an internship at the Music Agency in Manchester. In between internships, he has taken on private clients such as the Manchester School of Art, Women of Science and Cartwheel Arts and is now looking forward to working with new clients and businesses. His aim is to gain as much experience as he can in graphic design and print.

Ralph Jones

Print Futures Awards winner 2013

The Print Future Awards helped Ralph to pursue what turned out to be perhaps the best decision of his life: to undertake a Masters in Magazine Journalism at City University. Winning the Award helped him in a financial sense but, more importantly, it convinced him that his career change was a worthwhile and viable one and gave him the impetus to follow it through. He is now a staff writer for ShortList magazine.

James Jessiman

Print Futures Awards winner 2016

The Award, which came before the start of his second year at the Royal College of Art, gave James renewed confidence to go forward and finish the challenge he set to complete his MA. To go back to study was an expensive commitment and grants such as the Print Futures Awards help him feel this is achievable rather than just a pipe dream. He has been working closely with the technicians at the college to learn how to print on metal and surfaces that are new to him and he is really looking forward to taking advantage of a new process – CNC milling, a computer-aided process in which designs on a 3D modelling programme are milled away from a block of Chemiwood.

Gabriele Gudaityte

Print Futures Awards winner 2016

Gabriele is an artist in resident at Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art and Design in Dundee, which involves developing her own practice as a freelancer and helping out with the teaching. She has also been involved with the Dundee Print Collective and their exhibitions and zines and screen printed an edition of a calendar as part of her personal work. So far she has used her Award to buy art supplies, such as good printing paper, and paid the submission fees for exhibitions.

Print Futures Awards

This year we awarded a record 50 grants to young people aged 18 to 30 who are currently working in the sector or aiming to join it. There have been 157 winners since 2009. We also announced a new alumni programme that we aim to grow in 2017. Every winner of a Print Futures Award automatically becomes part of the alumni group with access to activities and opportunities from our partner organisations.

Previous winners have used their Awards to pay for things as diverse as colour management courses, a forklift and HGV driving course, childcare while studying, computers and design software, work placements, marketing courses, professional accreditation, and courses for speaking and presentation skills for work.

In total during 2016, our education and training funding, excluding our Print Futures Awards, has directly helped 521 young people with an interest in working in the graphics and print media sector. As we look to 2017, we will continue to work with other organisations to extend the reach and scale of our education initiatives in support of the sector's success.

PR and publicity

Our relationship with the key industry media is important to us and we work hard to engage with them in promoting our work to a wider audience than we could achieve on our own. Year-on-year we have increased the number of media outlets we engage with from print and online to social media. During the year we achieved coverage in the print trade press, regional newspapers and not-for-profit sector, including PrintWeek, Production Journal, Print Business, The Yorkshire Post, MK Citizen, Charity Times and FE News.

We collaborated with Print Monthly and The Print Show on a design competition to give Print Futures Awards winners practical experience of a commercial design brief.

Publicity has been gained through Unite the Union, as well as trade associations: BPIF, BAPC, APCOM, IPIA, Professional Publishers Association, and CDi Yorkshire. Beyond this, we have an ongoing programme of media engagement and were pleased to see media represented at our 189th Annual Luncheon.

We are fortunate and incredibly grateful to receive support from them all, including:

- PrintWeek
- Print Monthly
- Print Business
- Earth Island Publishing
- Image Reports
- Packaging News
- Quick Print Pro
- Digital Printer
- PJ – Production Journal
- Print Solutions
- The Bookseller
- Inpublishing

Our governance, structure & policies

The overall strategic direction of the charity is determined by the Trustees who meet formally at least four times a year. The Trustees (also referred to as Council) are the ultimate governing body. The governing document is contained in the charity's Regulations, which are reviewed every three years.

In addition to the formal Trustee meetings, a number of sub-committees exist to assist the Council in fulfilling its role. Of these, only the Investment Committee has delegated powers.

The day-to-day management of the charity is entrusted to the Chief Executive and Senior Management as laid down in the charity's Bye-laws.

The Printing Charity's Annual Luncheon 2016, Stationer's Hall

Our policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in notes to the accounts and comply with the charity's governing document, the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16 July 2014.

Financial delegation

The Council (Trustees) will approve an annual plan and budget in accordance with the approved timescale. The plan shall contain the staff required and the budget, which is the financial expression of the resources required.

Where day-to-day change is deemed appropriate by the Chief Executive & Secretary, s/he is able to implement such changes without referral to the Council, provided that they do not materially alter the level of service provided, its quality, the approved staff level or the expenditure required, either in part or full year terms, excluding items reserved for the Council. The Chief Executive & Secretary has the power to vire monies across the charity's operations in meeting the charity's Objects.

Grant making

The charity's primary form of grant making is to individuals who meet their criteria. Grants, be they regular support or one-off, are made to relieve and prevent poverty and assist those who are aged or distressed (as defined in Trustees of Mary Clark Home v Anderson [1904] 2KB 645). Regular Financial Assistance (RFA) is also provided and assessed bi-annually. The Printing Charity is under no obligation to continue with the RFA payments further than the initial six-month period specified. Further, the charity also contributes to those wishing to start, or develop, in the industry via supporting apprenticeships or through further education and training.

The level of payment is judged against criteria set out in the charity's Regulations. The criteria, policy and procedure are monitored annually to ensure that they meet The Printing Charity's objectives.

The charity also makes grants to organisations, where the Council (Trustees) are satisfied that the receiving organisation or charity will be able to identify individuals who meet the criteria required under The Printing Charity's Objects. The grant recipients and the work of the receiving organisation or charity must also dovetail with The Printing Charity's strategic aims.

As part of the process, a working agreement is established between The Printing Charity and receiving organisation or charity. This includes monitoring, auditing and reporting on how the money is used by the recipient charity.

Investment

The Printing Charity relies on income from its investments to carry out its charitable activities. The charity's long-term investment objective is CPI+4.5% net of management's fees on a rolling five years' basis. The charity adopted a total return objective to its investments, generating the return as a combination of income and capital gains or losses. Trustees are able to tolerate volatility of the capital value of the portfolio, as long as the charity is able to meet its short-term funding requirements through either income or liquid capital assets.

The appointed Investment Manager, Sarasin LLP, has complete discretion over the portfolio subject to FSA Rules regarding suitability and best execution. There are no specific restrictions, other than the limitations imposed by The Printing Charity's existing Charter that the investments should be suitable for Trusts.

The fund manager provides monthly statements setting out the value, composition of the portfolio and performance. The Investment Committee monitors progress and decides on further actions, if necessary, to produce the best financial return within an acceptable level of risk and to ensure the charity's sustainability.

Our policies

Public benefit

The charity targets assistance at those whom the Council (Trustees) believes to be on an income that meets their definition of poverty as set from time to time and have limited savings. It assesses an individual's situation by asking applicants for its services to complete a financial questionnaire. The charity also seeks to assist people who are vulnerable due to age, infirmity or other circumstances which put them at a disadvantage in our society. It assesses an individual's situation by asking applicants to complete a questionnaire about their personal circumstances, Trustees review annually against Charity Commission guidance.

Trustee recruitment, induction and training

The charity has a policy of drawing its Trustees predominantly from the industry it serves. It is looking to widen the industries represented on its Council, subject to the individuals having the appropriate skills and time to function as an effective Board of Trustees. Council fulfil their objective by drawing on their personal network within the industry. Council members may initially be co-opted and are subject to election at the next AGM. One-third of Council members retire at each AGM and are eligible for re-election.

New Trustees receive an induction pack based on Charity Commission 'essential guidance' for new Trustees. This is supported by a meeting with the Chief Executive & Secretary to discuss relevant issues prior to attending their first Council meeting, visits to the Sheltered Homes and Head Office to meet relevant team members. The Trustee has another meeting with the Chief Executive & Secretary approximately three months after appointment to discuss any issues that may have arisen.

Trustees receive details of relevant training courses from time to time. The policy is reviewed annually.

Reserves

The Printing Charity has four types of funds: Unrestricted, Restricted, Endowment and Designated. At the end of 2016 the charity's total funds were £37.7m.

£1.6m of this total were classified as endowment funds. These funds represent assets subsumed under Order of Charity Commission from Caxton Convalescent Home and the Association of Printers' Trust.

£2,500 of the total fund are funds awarded by The Patron's Fund and restricted for the benefit of the residents in our Sheltered Homes.

In 2016 the charity established a designated fund of £6.1m to recognise the funds required to ensure the appropriate operation and maintenance of our Sheltered Homes. £4.1m from this designated fund represents the net book value of the buildings of the homes and the remaining balance of £2m reflects the maintenance needs over a 15-year period, based on The Almshouse Association's recommendation and our average length of occupancy. The level of this fund is monitored and amended annually.

The unrestricted reserves available for the charity to the end of 2016 were £30m. The main purpose of this fund is to provide income enabling the charity to fulfil its charitable objectives. The Printing Charity's strategy is to increase its charitable activities and these reserves provide a platform for future growth.

The level of reserves is monitored regularly and reviewed annually. The current reserves are well within an acceptable level to meet short- and medium-term operational and funding requirements. The reserves policy will be reviewed in 2017 to reflect the charity's medium- to long-term strategy.

Remuneration

The Printing Charity is committed to pay staff fairly to attract and retain appropriately qualified staff to lead, manage, support and deliver the charity's objectives.

The charity's ethos is to ensure that every member of staff earns at least the Living Wage, which is an hourly rate set independently and updated annually, based on the living cost in the UK. Trustees also agreed that salary costs (excluding redundancy/termination expenses) should not exceed 25% of the charity's total expenditure.

- In accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP FRS 102) The Printing Charity discloses:
- all payments to Trustees (no Trustees receive 'pay')
- the number of staff in receipt of more than £60,000 and above (in bands of £10,000)
- pension and other benefits

The charity's Staff Committee meets annually and reviews salaries against independent benchmarking tools and make sure amendments are appropriate to ensure that salaries remain competitive.

Risk management

The Trustees have completed an assessment of the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations, finances and reputation of The Printing Charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate our exposure to the risks.

Risk Management also appears on sub-committee and senior management agendas as a regular item. This cascading approach is designed to manage the risk as effectively as possible. Risk Management is a standing agenda item for Council Meetings. The risk management assessment is reviewed half-yearly by Council (Trustees).

Supplier payments

The Printing Charity does not impose standard payment terms on its suppliers, but agrees specific terms with each supplier and then pays in accordance with this agreement.

Auditor

RSM UK Audit LLP have indicated their willingness to continue in office.

Our key objectives for 2017

The past year has been one of exceptional change for the charity. Following the appointment of a new Chief Executive & Secretary and our strategic review, we have a new structure, additional team members, and a renewed focus and clarity of purpose. In 2017 we will further benefit from the changes in structure and systems implemented in 2016.

The core areas of development in 2017 include:

- Increasing the number of people helped to 1,999
- Increasing the number of Print Futures Award winners, with a focus on supporting people in industry
- Rolling out the Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system to incorporate all partner, supporter and beneficiary details and to better inform our work and improve efficiency
- Establishing a formal way to measure our impact by understanding better what we do and the difference we make through an impact measurement survey of our beneficiaries

- To improve our knowledge and contact with beneficiaries to become more effective and efficient in delivering our grants
- Creating a better range of materials to help us promote our work and show the sector at its best, including a refreshed social media and online profile
- Recruit additional Trustees to help support the organisation's redefined focus and activities
- To better understand the members we have and identify a way to move our model to a supporter style programme

A primary objective for 2017 is to ensure that the positive changes introduced in 2016 are fully embedded in the organisation. Additionally, these objectives will help to develop our capacity and capability to reach more people in a meaningful way and, ultimately, create opportunities to ensure the charity is sustainable in the long-term.

Association of Printers' Trusts

Created by way of a Charity Commission Scheme on 9 June 1992 as a subsidiary charity of the Printers' Charitable Corporation, this brought together 24 charities, which had been founded between 1863 and 1939. They were:

13. The Charity of Elizabeth Mitchener, founded by will proved on the 10th July 1920;
14. The Charity of Notting for Pensions, founded by will proved on the 15th March 1911;
15. The Charity of Frances Ann Pardoe, founded by will proved on the 17th March 1900;
16. The Charity of the Right Honourable George Allardice Baron Riddell, regulated by a Scheme of the High Court of Justice (Chancery Division) of the 14th July 1937;
17. The Charity known as Rowarths Annuity Will Trust, founded by will proved on the 5th May 1895;
18. The Charity of Benjamin Franklin Stevens, founded by will proved on the 16th May 1902;
19. The Charity of Charlotte Stevens, founded by will proved on the 17th September 1903;
20. The Charity called The Sophia Tomlyn Pension Charity, founded by will of George Tomlyn proved on the 11th April 1938;

24. The Charity known as The Edward Cadbury Charitable Trust.

The charity was known as the Printers' Charitable Corporation Trust and the order refers to this name. The Trustees subsequently changed the name to the Association of Printers' Trusts. The trust was initially set up as a subsidiary charity of the Printers' Charitable Corporation. In 2010 the charity Commission agreed to a further scheme, which subsumed the Association of Printers' Trusts into the Printers' Charitable Corporation as an endowment fund.

Caxton Convalescent Home

The Caxton Convalescent Home was built at Limpsfield, Surrey and opened in 1895. The home became a reality because of the effort of John Passmore Edward, a notable Victorian philanthropist. In 1974 Caxton Convalescent Home was subject to a Charity Commission Scheme, which vested the administration of the charity and the property in the Printers' Charitable Corporation.

In 1977 the convalescent home was sold because the annual cost of reinstating the home greatly exceeded the income. Following the sale, the Printers' Charitable Corporation offered convalescent care at Caxton Lodge in Eastbourne. This too was eventually sold due to a lack of demand. The funds were invested on behalf of Caxton Convalescent Home Trust as a subsidiary charity of the Printers' Charitable Corporation. In 2010 the Trust was subject to a further Charity Commission Scheme and the endowment fund was created.

Review of the financial position

Despite a continuing challenging economic environment I am pleased to report that our investments continue to provide modest returns, bringing the total value of our investments at 31 December 2016 to £33.1m, which amounts to approximately 3.5% return in 2016.

Our policy is to maintain a stable budget and we regularly monitor and evaluate variances to budget as part of our financial control. Our gain this year amounted to £1,344k compared to a loss in 2015 of £(415)k. This gain is predominantly due to a stronger performance of our investments as compared to the prior year (£1,946k in 2016; £123k in 2015).

We are delighted to report that our expenditure in relation to Education & Partnerships has increased significantly from £348k to £491k with the remaining expenditure from charitable activities broadly remaining stable. We have significantly increased the number of people being helped from 1,142 in 2015 to 1,646 in 2016, which shows that we are reaching out to more people and we are aiming to help even more people in 2017.

Our income is mainly sourced from our investments, which amounted to £1,217k in 2016, an increase from £1,089k in 2015, as the charity benefited from currency devaluations. This increase was offset by increased spending on charitable activities, so that the total deficit, not taking into account the increase in the value of our investments, remains broadly the same year-on-year £601k in 2016 (£538k in 2015).

This means that our finances continue to be very strong.

A note on our policies on Reserves, taxation and supplier payments:

The Printing Charity's unrestricted reserves amount to £36.1m plus endowment reserves of £ 1.6m, giving a total of £37.7m. Free reserves amount to £30m as we have established a designated fund to cover our Sheltered Homes future maintenance needs. Financial reserves provide the income and capital growth to fund The Printing Charity's charitable activities by subsidising residents in our homes and meeting the full cost of grants payments. The level of reserves is monitored regularly and reviewed annually.

The Printing Charity is a registered charity that can claim exemption under section 505 (Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988) for income and gains, which are applied for charitable purposes. The charity is not registered for VAT. The Printing Charity does not impose standard payment terms on its suppliers but agrees specific terms with each supplier and then pays in accordance with this agreement.

I am confident that the charity will thrive and is financially well equipped to increase its impact in the future.

Statement of the Trustees' responsibilities in respect of the financial statements

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in notes to the accounts and comply with the charity's governing document, the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16th July 2014. The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP FRS 102;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the Supplemental Royal Charter 2014 with Associated Bye-laws 2014. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information included on the charity's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Trustees of The Printing Charity

Opinion on financial statements

We have audited the financial statements of The Printing Charity (the 'charity') for the year ended 31 December 2016 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, the Cash Flow Statement and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including FRS 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland'.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's affairs as at 31 December 2016 and of its incoming resources and application of resources for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011.

Emphasis of matter – early adoption of the Charities SORP (FRS 102)

In forming our opinion, which is not modified, we have considered the disclosure in note 1a concerning the charity's early adoption of the Charities SORP (FRS 102) issued in July 2014, rather than applying the Charities 2005 SORP which has been withdrawn but is still referred to in the extant Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. This departure has been necessary for the financial statements to show a true and fair view in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

A description of the scope of an audit of financial statements is provided on the Financial Reporting Council's website at <http://www.frc.org.uk/auditscopeprivate>

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Act 2011 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Trustees' Report is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements; or
- sufficient accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and auditor

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees' responsibilities set out on page 37 the Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

This report is made solely to the charity's Trustees as a body, in accordance with the Charities Act 2011. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's Trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's Trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinion we have formed.

1. Accounting Policies

a) Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis as modified by the inclusion of investments at market value.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) issued on 16 July 2014 and the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011 and UK Generally Acceptable Practice as it applies from 1 January 2015.

The financial statements have been prepared to give a 'true and fair' view and have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to extent required to provide a 'true and fair' view. This departure has involved following 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)' issued on 16 July 2014 rather than 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice' effective from 1 April 2005 which has since been withdrawn. The charity is a public benefit entity.

Some of the Charities SORP FRS 102 recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure requirements and accounting policy choices differ from Charities SORP 2005. Consequently, the Trustees have amended certain accounting policies to comply with Charities SORP FRS 102. The Trustees have also taken advantage of certain exemptions from the requirements of Charities SORP FRS 102 permitted by FRS 102 Section 35 'Transition to this FRS'.

b) Going concern

As detailed in the Trustee's responsibilities statement, the accounts are prepared on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation. The charity's Trustees have approved the charity's budgets and forecast for 2017 and conclude that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for at least twelve months from the date of signing of the financial statements.

c) Donations and legacies

All voluntary income is recognised once the charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

d) Incoming resources from charitable activities

Income from the provision of sheltered housing is accounted for on an accruals basis.

e) Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred. Liabilities are recognised as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to the expenditure.

Irrecoverable VAT is charged against the category of resources expended from which it was incurred.

Costs of raising funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Governance costs include those costs associated with the general running of the charity and include the operations of the Council and addressing constitutional, audit and other statutory requirements.

Other costs cover activity which is designed to promote the charity's work with the intention of achieving the strategic objective of helping more people. Expenditure under this heading has been broken down into marketing of the charity to funders and beneficiaries, public relations (this is general material and activity relating to cover within the media) together with attendance at industry shows and seminars, which reach out to those within the industry.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the Statement of Financial Activities on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned as detailed in Note 1f).

f) Allocation of Support and Governance Costs

The costs of functions, which support more than one of the charity's activities, have been allocated to those activities based on time spent. Governance cost has been allocated based on a percentage of the cost to the total cost.

g) Grants payable

Grants payable are accounted for on award to the recipient.

Notes to the accounts

h) Financial instruments

The charity only has financial assets (other debtors, rents, loans, accrued income) and financial liabilities (other creditors, accruals) of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments and are not considered to be of a financing nature. Such financial instruments, except for investments, are initially recognised at the transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.

i) Investments

Investments are stated at their Bid-market value at 31 December. Realised gains and losses and the change in value of investments held at the year-end are taken to the Statement of Financial Activities. Realised gains and losses represent the difference between net proceeds of sales less the original cost, unrealised gains and losses represent the movement after taking account of sales in the year, in the difference between the market value of securities at the year end and their original cost. Gross income from fixed interest securities is accounted for on a receivable basis. Investment management fees are net of any commission rebate received on the portfolio.

Income generated by the endowment funds, which are invested separately from the unrestricted funds are applied to the charity's Welfare activities. The charity has permission to use the income in this way under the schemes that set up the Association of Printers' Trust and Caxton Convalescent Home.

j) Tangible assets and depreciation

Items of expenditure of a capital nature exceeding a de minimis level of £250 are capitalised and included in fixed assets at cost or valuation at the date of donation. Items of expenditure that are below the de minimis limit are taken directly to the Statement of Financial Activities. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis to write down the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives at the following rates:

Freehold Buildings	2% per annum
Leasehold Improvements	17% per annum (over lease term)
Fixtures and Fittings – General	10% per annum
Electrical Equipment	20% per annum
Computer Equipment	50% per annum

No depreciation is provided on freehold land.

k) Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are converted at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of transaction. All translation differences are taken to the Statement of Financial Activities as they arise.

l) Revenue and designated reserves

Generally all donations, realised capital gains and other receipts of a capital nature are added to the revenue reserve, unless required for specific projects. Any income not utilised on charitable expenditure or in meeting the administration and other expenses of the year in which it is earned, is set aside for specific projects.

m) Pension costs

The charity operates a defined contribution group personal pension plan. Pension costs are accounted for on the basis of charging actual costs of providing pensions during the year.

n) Operating lease costs

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged in the Statement of Financial Activities on a straight line basis over the lease term.

o) Liquid resources

For the purposes of preparing the cash flow statement all short-term deposits with a maturity greater than one day but less than one year are treated as liquid resources.

p) Corporation tax

The Printing Charity is a registered charity and as such its income and gains falling within Sections 471 to 489 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 are exempt from corporation tax to the extent that they are applied to its charitable objectives.

r) Funds

The charity holds three types of funds, unrestricted, restricted and endowment. Unrestricted are those which can be spent at the Trustees' discretion within the powers given under the Royal Charter. Restricted funds represents donations for specific purpose. Endowment are the funds subsumed under Order of Charity Commission from Caxton Convalescent Home and the Association of Printers' Trust.

s) Estimations & uncertainties – Provisions for liabilities

The provision for the Butlin House Subsidy is considered to have become binding on the date of completion of the sale. The provision has been calculated based on management's best estimate of the life expectancy of existing residents and is reassessed at each balance sheet date. The subsidy is terminated the day after an existing subsidy recipient ceases residency in Butlin House.
